Scam Calls to Bartlett Library Patrons

There have been reports of patrons receiving scam phone calls to collect personal information by someone pretending to be from the Bartlett Public Library District.

The Bartlett Public Library District will never ask for personal information such as social security numbers or driver's license numbers.

Information the Library does collect is a patron's address to make sure they live within the district boundaries and, if a patron so chooses, they may also provide the library with their phone number or email address if they would like to receive library notifications. All of this information is conveyed in person.

The Bartlett Public Library District will never reach out to gather personal information from the public.
